POOL.—In Clay township, October 2d, 1868, Josephine, daughter of George and Sarah Pool; aged 16 years, 10 months, and 20 days. Her life, though short, ended with victory, and while mourning friends see a vacant seat, over it they behold inscribed, "I am ready."

"Though cast down, we're not forsaken;
Though afflicted, not alone;
Thou didst give, and thou hast taken;
Blessed Lord,—Thy will be done."
F. G. DAVIS.

SWISHER.-In Cheshire, Ohio, October 5th, 1868, of croup, Mollie, daughter of Ellis and Martha Swisher; aged 2 years, 8 months, and 24 x:xiv. "Suffer the little children to come uni me, &c."

A beautiful bud on earth; in heaven a fadeles

"She died to sin; she died to care; But for a moment felt the rod; Then, rising on the viewless air, Spread her bright wings, and soared to God." T. H. DRAKE.

MARKETS.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 19.

Gold 137. FLOUR.-The market has been dull and heavy all the week, and prices rule about 25c per brl lower. Wheat.—The supply has been small, but fully equal to the demand, which has been unusually light, but prices were sustained until Saturday, when the market was heavy. To-day there was little demand, and lower prices had to be accepted. No. 1 winter red sold at $1 85, and No. 2 do at $1 75, although not freely offered at these

Cons.-The demand has been fair, but with liberal receipts the market rules easier, closing quiet at 98@99c for mixed and white ear, on arrival at the landing and depots, and 98@$1 00 and the market closes easier, with only

Automatic Clothes Washer!

THE simplicity of its operations and the great amount of hand labor saved (say nothing of the wear of the fabrics in washing) make it the most valuable article in the line of housekeeping. No man is a good hus-band or father that will see or allow his wife band or father that will see or allow his wife or daughter to wear out their lives over a wash-tub when he can make that necessary labor as easy to his family as cooking a meal of victuals, and that too for the small outlay of $5. Comment or recommendation of its great worth are unnecessary; it must be seen and tried, to be appreciated. We can pro-duce thousands of certificates from those who have tested its merits.
